UNIVERSAL
ART

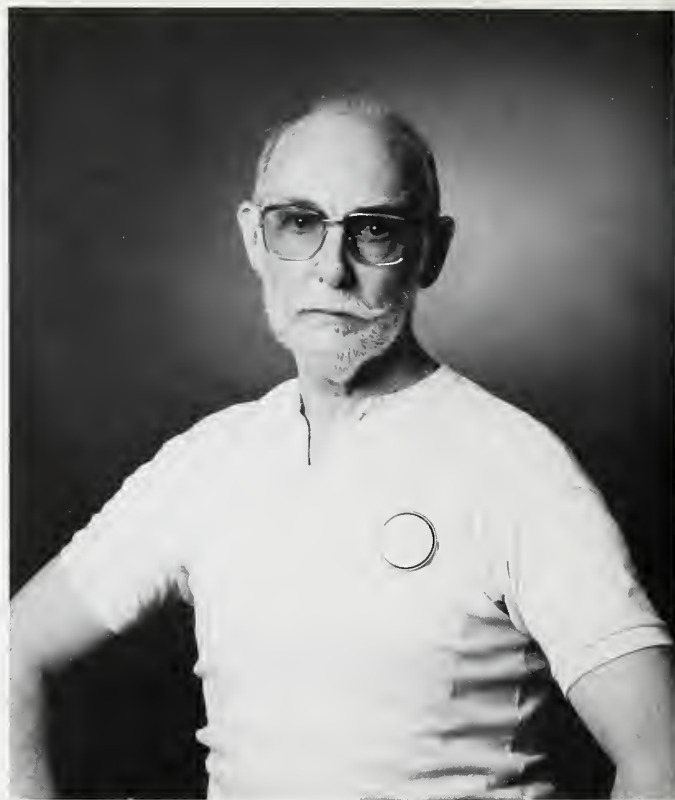

NORTH CAROLINA SCHOOL OF THE ARTS
200 WAUGHTOWN STREET
WINSTON-SALEM, NC 27117

The 1993 yearbook was named Universal Art by approximately thirty people. In an early yearbook meeting we all came to the realization that we were from entirely different places, liked different things, had different views on life, and lived our lives as individuals. There was one factor that stood out as common, the arts. Of course we all defined art in different ways, but there was still that bond. This idea was the inspiration behind this yearbook.

DR. DUNCAN NOBLE

This year I was invited by Dr. Noble and the West Virginia Department of Culture and History to attend the West Virginia Dance festival along with eight or nine other NCSA students. We gladly accepted and made our way to Charleston, West Virginia. Once we arrived at our hotel we quickly made friends with other festival participants. We began talking about dance and teachers when out of nowhere a rather snooty girl shrieked "I really don't like that Duncan Noble guy . . ." that is about all she got out of her mouth before Joe Curry and Stuart Capps cut her off and made her wish she studied basket-weaving instead of ballet. The rest of us didn't take long to join in, we made this girl understand exactly who Mr. Noble was to each of us. John Cronin must have lectured for about five minutes on why he was offended that she called Mr. Noble by his first name rather than "sir," or "your highness." I assure you when we stamped out of this poor girl's room she knew never to say anything negative about Mr. Noble again. In fact at the end of the festival she apologized for judging Mr. Noble without ever having even taken class with him.

Looking back at this event I realize something. I have more respect for Dr. Duncan Noble than I have ever contemplated having for any one person. This miracle of a man is a great choreographer, teacher, friend, mentor and disciplinarian. He is a huge part of the lives of his students, past and present, someone we'll never forget. Dr. Noble has been at this school since it opened its doors. He has trained the best, not just in dance, but in life as well.

Dr. Duncan Noble was born in Canada. He began dancing as a Scottish highland dancer; from there he moved to tap and ballet. He moved to the United States to join Ballet Theatre (now American Ballet Theatre). He then enjoyed a healthy career on Broadway before signing with Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. There he became a featured soloist. Television was the next step to his exciting career. Dr. Noble appeared on many television shows such as "The Ed Sullivan Show," and "Arthur Murry Dance Party." Dr. Noble has worked with The National Endowment for the Arts, and was recently honored with "Duncan Noble Day" by the West Virginia Department of Culture and History. Dr. Noble was awarded a honorary doctorate of Fine Arts in 1993. When rumor spread about retirement . . . every ballet student in the school signed a petition requesting he stay. Dr. Noble, thank you, you are an inspiration to all of us. It is my distinct pleasure to dedicate this yearbook to you!

— Chaz Ballish, editor

Kerr

Dr. Noble was featured in his own company called "Gala Performance."

Clockwise — Third floor F late night rap session. Hangin' out backstage at the opera. Did you really expect to get Michael Laufer to laugh? Just chillin'.

WHAT'S UP

Left — Tim . . . Sticky Dough . . .!!

Right — Who tied our dreadlocks together?

It is just too early for Maggie "Magillicutty."

West Virginia never saw anything like this before . . . by the way, where's "hot Ott?"

Well, that is all the students whose pictures we received. If your picture did not appear in this section . . . tough!! Oh yeah, we realize that some of the pictures are out of order; we received some pictures at odd times during the layout process.

LETTERS FROM THE EDITORS

CHAZ BALLISH      BOBBIE OVERTON

I think today is August fourth or fifth, it's about 4 am and Bobbie and I are just finishing the book.

All I can say is thank God it's over! But God isn't the only one who deserves thanks, I'd also like to thank: Doug Patterson, Lauren Schepker, Bob Daye, Dr. Duncan Noble, Chancellor and Mrs. Ewing, Sampson, Jamie Trout, Linda Allgood, Zuri Goldman, Chris Budzynski, The people at Jostens, Bobbie, Bobbie, Bobbie, My parents, Maggie Lloyd, Joanna Johnson, Elmira Powell, Britt Dunaway, Deborah Foster, Travis for inspiring Mary, All the people in P.R., Charlie Buchanan, Alan Aycock, John Cronin, J.D. Salinger, Nicholas Ade, the School of Dance, Campus Police, The countless masses who donated pictures, and of course the staff. If I forgot anyone I'm really sorry. OK, now for the letter part . . .

Dear you,

Here is the yearbook. We tried very hard to put together a decent book despite some pretty nasty conditions. Please note the large number of "candid" pages. We decided in the beginning that these pages summed up NCSA better than anything, so we put a bunch of them in. Also, if anyone would like to input their suggestions for next year . . . please do. The End!

O.K. it's 5:00 am, and needless to say I'm very tired. I would like to thank everyone Chaz thanked. I would also like to thank: Massie

Johnson, Jon Metzger, Chris Norton, Steve Kirkman, John Fedderson, Chris Deane, Keiko Abe, Clair Omar Musser, Bob Becker, Glen Velez, Cloyd Duff, Mickey Hart, Evelyn Glennie, Milt Jackson, Carol Johnson,

Max Roach, Chris Lamb, Raymond Helble and Tim Adams — none of whom had anything to do with this book, but they remain, none the less, extremely nifty individuals. I suppose now would be an appropriate time to pay my respects to a few other people/ places/things which are only slightly less cool than the first list: Animal (of the Muppets), whoever invented techno, post-it notes, Ney York City, the nice old man who waved to me yesterday when I was crossing the street, the cast of Saturday Night Live, Chazy-baby, and the trees that gave their lives to become my drumset. It is now 7:00 am (yes, it took me two hours to write the last paragraph) and I have been gently reminded that this letter should include some reference to the yearbook. Well, here goes. In the beginning there were many. Then there were two. What am I trying to say here? Chaz and I did the book almost completely by ourselves (please hold your applause). Anything you feel is in poor taste or pitifully laid out or misspelled is probably my doing. Get over it. Finally, I would like to thank the editor. Chaz, Chazola, Chazness, Chazorama. It is not an exaggeration to say that there would be no yearbook without him. He's one of the hardest working people I know, and he handled his responsibilities as editor with remarkable ease. Gee, I think I've done everything I'm supposed to do. Yeah! It's 9:00 am now; I'm out of things to say, and I don't want to type anymore. I would like to leave you with these words of wisdom: WHERE EVER YOU GO — THERE YOU ARE.
